MERCY JUSTICE

COPENHAGEN, March 18.

THE Troops design'd to form a Camp at Holstein have Orders to keep themselves in Readiness to march the Beginning of next Month. The King will have near 50000 Men on Foot in the Month of May next.

Dresden, March 21. The Court has receiv'd an Express from Vienna, with the News of the Queen of Hungary's being happily deliver'd of a Prince. Most People think that this Birth will greatly contribute to the amicable Determination of the Differences between this Court and that of Vienna, in respect to the Electoral Voice of Bohemia, and that it will have some Influence upon other Affairs of the Empire.

Stockholm, March 24. The Affair of Baron de Gyllenstierna is one of those which at present engages the Diet. The Commissaries appointed to examine into the Conduct of that Baron have reported, that he has for many Years held a secret Correspondence with M. Bestuchef, Minister from Russia, whom he has inform'd of the most important Affairs carrying on in the Senate, and in the secret Committee of the Diet, as also of the Negociation depending with foreign Powers: That as often as he had any thing to communicate to M. Bestuchef, he went to him by Night, and let himself in at a false Door, by a Key which he kept, that he might not be seen by the Servants: That some other Persons whose Names he has discover'd, went in after the same Manner; that they staid there more or less time, according to the Measures they were to concert, in favour of the Court of Russia; and that all this Correspondence had been obtain'd by Means of Money. It appears, that M. Bestuchef was inform'd of the Contents of most of the Letters wrote by M. Nolcken, our Minister residing at Petersburgh; as also of those of Count Tessin, who is at Paris; and of the most secret Accounts sent us from our Ministers at Constantinople. The several different Orders which compose the Diet have given their Opinion upon this Affair. The Nobility have judg'd, that the Baron having betray'd his Country, ought to be punish'd as a Traytor. The Clergy have declar'd the same The Burghers have judg'd that he ought to be made an Example of, in order by his Punishment to deter others whom the Government may hereafter confide in from betraying their Trust. The Peasants have agreed with the three other Orders. The Baron is fallen ill since his Arrest, and grows worse and worse every Day. The Court has notified to all Strangers who are in this City, that unless they have very important Business they must depart hence without Delay.

LONDON,

March 29. 'A Letter dated the 26th Instant has been 'receiv'd here from Stockholm, to the following Purpose: 'The Traytor of his Country, the Baron Gyllenstierna, is at 'length discover'd, and as he is convinc'd of his Crime, 'he will soon receive his Reward. Twelve other Persons 'of Distinction, who were heretofore suspected, have likewise been arrested, amongst whom are two Senators. An 'Order has lately been publish'd for all Foreigners, of what 'Rank soever, to retire from this Capital to some neighbouring Village. Three Couriers which Mr. Bestuchef, Minister from Russia, had dispatch'd to Petersburgh, by three 'different Routs, have been all intercepted upon the Road, 'and brought back hither. All these Circumstances make 'it believ'd that War between us and Russia is inevitable.'

Brussels, March 27. The Birth of the Archduke has caus'd great Joy here. A triple Discharge was made on that Occasion of the Cannon from the Ramparts, There were also Bonfires and Illuminations, and Wine given to the Populace Vienna, March 29. Advices have just been receiv'd by an Express, that the Army under the Command of Count Neuperg was marching into Silesia with all Expedition, in order to attack that of Prussia, which has, it's said, already undertaken the Siege of Neiss.

London, April 2. 'Tis said that the Dutch will have at Sea this Summer, twenty Men of War of the Line.

April 3. They write from Silesia, that as Neiss is closely block'd up by the Prussians, they expect, before the Surrender of that Fortress, that a general Action will happen between those Troops and those of Austria.

April, 4. Yesterday certain Advice arriv'd at the Admiralty-Office, that two Spanish Ships homeward bound from the Carraccas, having an immense Treasure on board, were taken by some part of Admiral Haddock's Squadron upon the Coast of Old Spain.

Hamburgh, April 4. They write from Petersburg, that since Count Munich has obtain'd his Discharge, the publick Business has been divided among three Ministers; Count d'Osterman has the Direction of foreign Affairs, and Prince Tscherkaskoy and Count Golowkin all those of a domestick Nature. The Preparations for carrying the War on, and the Troops every where are in full Motion, notwithstanding the Severity of the Season.

Cologn, April 7. Several private Letters confirm, that the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, will be one of the principal Competitors who will appear as Candidates for the Imperial Dignity.

Boston, June 8. This Morning Capt. Kent arrived here in five Weeks from Jamaica, who confirms the News we have by the Way of New-York, of the taking Carthagena. He says they had Advice of it before he left Kingston, and 6 Days after they saw a considerable Number of Transports, full of Men, going from Carthagena to Jamaica, some of which their Commodore spoke with, and they inform'd him, that the Town had capitulated for 9 Millions, and that the Transports and Troops, with part of the Fleet were returning to Jamaica; but that Admiral VERNON stayed to demolish

all

all or part of the Forts, &c. Capt. Kent further ſays, that the Day before he ſail'd, Capt. Warren brought in a Spaniſh Privateer with 120 Men. Sure this Gentelman deſerves to be knighted for Courage and Induſtry, while ſome of his Brethren, &c.

WILLIAMSBURG, June 5.

We have certain Advice, That on Monday the 25th ult. a Spaniſh Privateer, cruizing off this Coaſt, took three Veſſels within a few Leagues of our Capes, viz. the Ship Patuxent, from Maryland, bound to London, John Shaw, Maſter; the Snow Argyle, John McCunn, Maſter, from York-River bound to Glaſcow: and a New-England Fiſhing-Boat. The Maſters of which make the following Depoſition:

Elizabeth City County, ſſ.

THESE are to Certify, That John M'Cunn, Maſter, Henry Wadrop and Robert Barclay, Seamen, of the Snow Argyle, of Glaſgow; and John Shaw, Maſter of the Ship Patuxent, of London, came before us, His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and made Oath on the Holy Evangeliſts as followeth: The ſaid John M'Cunn, Maſter of the Snow Argyle, as aforeſaid, ſaith, That having on Board Three Thouſand Five Hundred Buſhels of Wheat, Four Thouſand Pounds of Bread, Twenty Barrels of Pork, One Thouſand Five Hundred Feet of Oak Plank, and Six Hundred Feet of Plank, taken on Board in Pamunkey, York-River, and bound to Glaſgow, he ſailed out of York-River the Twenty-fourth of May laſt paſt, with the Wind at Weſt, untill they came down to the Horſe-ſhoe, near Lynn-haven Bay, where they ceme to Anchor, it being calm, and the Tide of Flood againſt them; at which Time the ſaid Capt Shaw came to an Anchor with his Ship a ſmall Way off from the ſaid M'Cunn: The ſaid Capt. Shaw came from Oxford, in Choptank River, Maryland, having on Board Three Hundred and Five Hogſheads of Tobacco, One Thouſand Pipe Staves, and Three Thouſand Five Hundred Hogſhead Staves, bound to London. The next Morning the ſaid Captains weighed their Anchors, and got under Sail, with the Wind at South-Weſt; and about Eight of the Clock, the ſaid Capt. M'Cunn, being a breaſt of the Cape, ſaw a Sloop, diſtant about Three Leagues off the Cape, who ſtood in round the Cape, with an Engliſh Jack flying at her Bow-ſprit, and paſt us untill ſhe got a ſtern of Capt. Shaw; then the ſaid Sloop put about, which made the ſaid Captains ſuſpect ſhe was an Enemy: Wherefore the ſaid Capt. M'Cunn made all the Sail he could, ſtanding off before the Wind; and in a very ſmall Time, the ſaid Sloop came up with the ſaid Capt. Shaw, who (the ſaid Capt. M'Cunn) ſaw ſtrike to the ſaid Sloop, after firing Three Shot at her. When the ſaid Sloop had ſecured the ſaid Ship, ſhe immediately gave the ſaid Capt. M'Cunn Chaſe, being about Nine of the Clock in the Morning, until Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, when ſhe came up with the ſaid Captain, Cape Charles then bearing Weſt by South, diſtant Seven Leagues, which obliged them to ſtrike to her, as not being of any Force to reſiſt her, ſhe proving to be a Spaniſh Privateer of Sixteen Guns, and Eighty Five Men, fitted out at St. Domingo, and receiv'd their Commiſſion at the Havannah, and moſt of the People French on board the ſaid Sloop, who commanded the ſaid Capt. M'Gunn to hoiſt out his Boat and come on board; which he did, with Four of his People with him, whom they confin'd, and us'd u' for the firſt Day very barbarouſly, and afterwards ſent ſome of their own Hands on Board to take Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Snow; and the next Day ſent another of their People on board the ſaid Privateer. On the Day after, they gave Chaſe to a Sloop, whom they preſently took, which prov'd to be a Whale-fiſher belonging to New-England, and finding no Cargo on board the ſaid Sloop, did on the Twenty Ninth following, deliver up the ſaid Sloop again to the Fiſherman, and put the ſaid Capt. M'Cunn, and Five of his People, together with Capt. Shaw, and Three of his People on board the ſaid Fiſherman, leaving them without any Books or Inſtruments, (a Compaſs excepted) to make what Land they could, being then about Eighty or Ninety Leagues diſtant from Cape Henry, which bore North Weſt by Weſt; and was Three Days before they made a Harbour, which happened to be Hawkin's Hole, in James River. The ſaid Captain M'Cunn further ſaith, That they carried away in his ſaid Snow, his Mate, Carpenter, one Seaman, and two Boys; and alſo, in the ſaid Capt Shaw's Ship, his Mate, Boatſwain, Cook, and three Fore-Maſt Men: Therefore, they the ſaid Capt. M'Cunn and Capt. Shaw crave a Proteſt for all Loſſes and Damages ſuſtained, againſt the ſaid Privateer, by means of their ſaid Veſſels and Cargoes. Given under our Hands, this Firſt Day of June, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty One.

New-York, June 15. On Saturday the 6th Inſtant John Heuſtes, of this Place, his Wife, and Daughter, with Margaret Cany, alias Newfoundland Peg, alias Negro Peg, (having had a Baſtard Child by the Negro that now hangs in Chains) were Tryed on an Indictment at the Supreme Court, and found guilty of Confederating with the Negroes; nay, even contriving and encouraging them to burn the Town and kill the Inhabitants; for which they received Sentence of Death; and accordingly, laſt Tueſday the ſaid Heuſtes, his Wife and his Servant Margaret were executed, but his Daughter (who is about 17 or 18 years old) is Reprieved for a few days. We do not hear that either of the ſaid Perſons made any Confeſſion, but ſeem'd unconcerned at dying, and one of them curs'd the Executioner.

In the Afternoon on the ſame day there were four Negroes burnt alive, according to Sentence of the ſupreme Court, for the ſame Crime. Many Negroes are in Goal, not yet come to Tryal, and others are daily taken up and committed. A Military Watch is kept, and like to be continued.

On Saturday laſt four Negroes were convicted at the Supreme Court here on account of the Plot to burn the Town; and the 15th day Sentence will paſs againſt them. The ſame day 4 more will be Tryed for their Lives. Every day there is further Diſcovery of this Plot, and many Negroes are taken and committed, in order to be tryed for the ſame.

By the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of Philadelphia.

WHereas the Currency of Engliſh Half-pence in this Province, has long been found convenient for the Uſe of the Inhabitants, for ſmall Change; but the Value or Rate at which they ſhould paſs not having been ſettled by any Authority, they have been often received at too high a Value, by Reaſon whereof great Quantities of Half-pence were imported from the Neighbouring Colonies, and exchanged for our Gold and Silver.

And whereas at a late General Meeting of the Merchants and others, it was agreed that the ſaid Half-pence ſhould be received at Fifteen for One Shilling, current Money of this Province, which was judged to be the neareſt to ſuch a Value as might diſcourage too great a Quantity being imported, and at the ſame Time prevent their being carried away.

And Whereas ſome uneaſy and ill-diſpoſed Perſons, without any Authority or Conſent of the trading Part of the Province, are now endeavouring to leſſen the Value or Rate at which the ſaid Half-pence were lately agreed to paſs; which tends very much to interrupt the Trade of the Province, and to breed Diſquiet among the Inhabitants: And the Mayor and Commonalty having taken the ſame into their Conſideration, and being willing, as far as they may, to prevent the Inconveniencies that may happen by Reaſon of ſuch a Proceeding; Do declare, That until the Value or Rate at which Engliſh Half-pence were lately agreed to paſs, be alter'd by ſome lawful Authority, or general Agreement among the trading Perſons and Inhabitants of the Province, any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall refuſe to receive Engliſh Half-pence in ſmall Payments, at the Rate of Fifteen Engliſh Half-pence for One Shilling, ought to be deemed a Diſturber of the Publick Peace of the Province. Philadelphia, June 18, 1741.
